

WHAT NEXT?

Expect to hear from us within three weeks after your application is submitted.

We look forward to working with you.

Background

The Airway Heights City Council recognizes that the youth in our community have particular insight and opinions on the issues affecting the youth and the teen population in the community as it relates to programs for youth and teens. The City Council believes having input from young people will be a helpful complement to the decision making process of the City Council. The City Council believes that youth are an important part of the community and their needs and well-being are a legitimate concern of the City of Airway Heights.

Membership

The commission shall be composed of ten members. 10 members from the Airway Heights community. All members of the commission shall be appointed by the Airway Heights City Council. Each commission member must sign the Airway Heights Youth Advisory Commission Code of Ethics prior to assumption of their duties as a Youth Commissioner. All appointments to the commission shall be for a period of two years except for commissioners who are appointed during their senior year in high school; these commissioners shall serve for a period not to extend beyond their graduation date from high school. The term of an appointed commissioner shall be October 1st to September 30th of each calendar year unless a commissioner is appointed during the mid year to fill a vacancy on the commission.

YAC Membership Expectations

TEAMWORK

Keep in touch with the officers of the commission. If you miss a meeting, it is your responsibility to find out what you missed and complete tasks for which you volunteered. We depend on each other to get things done and have FUN!

- Youth Engagement Projects

The Youth Advisory Commission (YAC) is designed to engage youth and utilize their particular insight and opinions on the issues affecting the youth and the teen population in the community as it relates to programs for youth and teens. The Commission will be composed of youth representatives from area schools, YAC will help to:

- A. Provide a structure within city government to respond to the needs of youth and children;
- B. Serve as a voice for all children and youth by understanding, recognizing, and making recommendations to the City Council on issues that promote a safe, healthy, and positive environment for youth and child development; and
- C. Plan and implement activities and programs which promote a positive environment for youth. YAC plans and implements events, initiatives and projects such as the Youth Issues Candidate Forum and the City Council Youth Awards. YAC members gain valuable experience in leadership and opportunities to build their skills in marketing, public relations and public speaking.
